

WHAT IS RACE AMITY?

Race amity is a tradition of close interracial partnership and collaboration that has served throughout our history as the moral counterweight to the dominant tradition of racism and oppression.

Icons of Race Amity

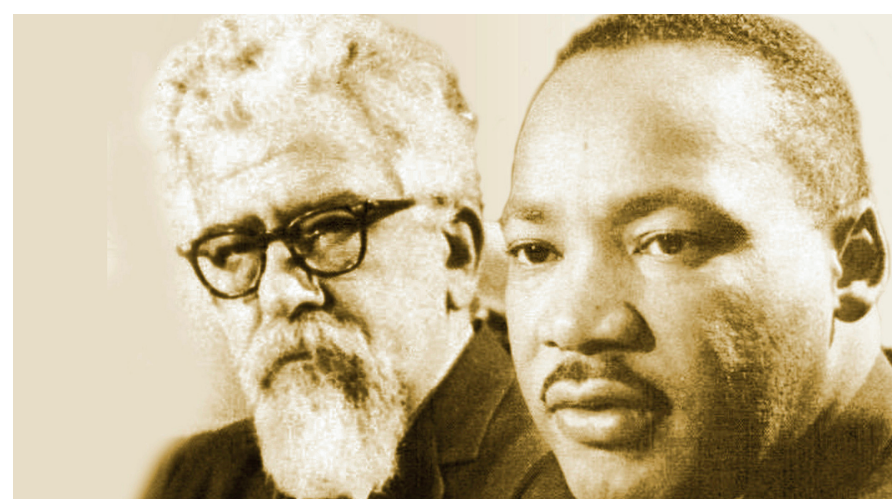

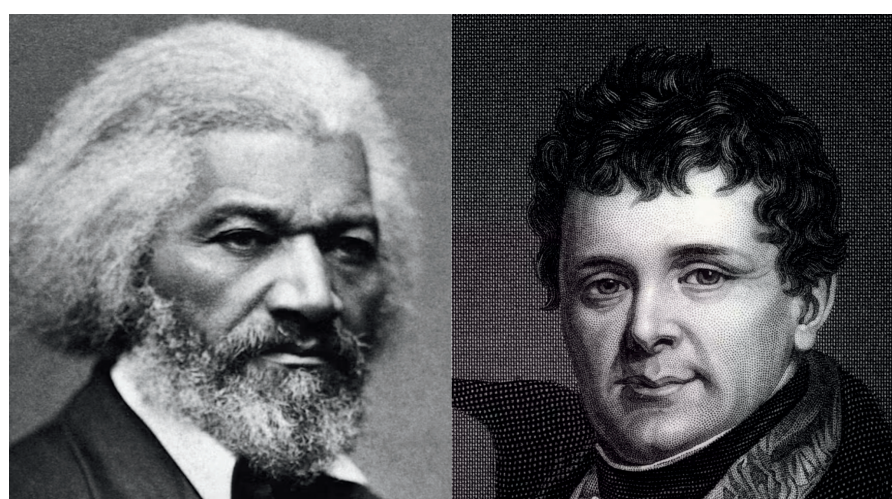

Frederick Douglass and Daniel O'Connell

Martin Luther King and Abraham Joshua Heschel

Mary McLeod Bethune and Eleanor Roosevelt

These powerful works of art, commissioned by the National Center for Race Amity, celebrate people who exemplified interracial friendship and partnership in advancing social justice.

www.raceamity.org/icons

Follow this link to view stories and videos about each of the icons.